

2018 Readmissions Action Learning Day “Working Together to Make Readmissions Rare”

April 30, 2018 | 8:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. CT | $50 (includes lunch)

Hilton Airport/Mall of America, Bloomington, Minnesota

Learn together with your community peers and develop collaborative approaches to improving quality of care and quality of life by keeping patients healthy and safe at home. Sessions and rapid-fire sessions will highlight innovative and evidence-based strategies for collaborative approaches to improving coordination with care partners, designing a better care experience, engaging with patients and providers in new ways, and addressing root causes of hospital readmissions.

Audience: Health care & community-based organization professionals across the continuum of care (hospitals, home health, skilled nursing, clinics, etc.) interested in improving care transitions to reduce readmissions.

Objectives

- Understand how interactions between multiple settings of care contribute to readmissions.
- Identify strategies to further reduce readmissions in partnership with others.
- Commit to shared goal for statewide readmission reduction.
- Break down silos, foster cross-setting collaboration to improve care that includes patients, families, and caregivers.

Partial Speaker List

- Angela Booher, Director of Care Transitions, Fairview Health Services
- Susan Craft, RN, Director, Care Coordination Initiatives, Clinical Quality & Safety, Henry Ford Health System
