Reducing the Stigma: What People Struggling With Addiction Want Clinicians to Know

Wednesday, September 12, 2018

Noon – 1:00 p.m. ET / 11:00 a.m. - Noon CT

Live Webinar

Continuing Education Information

Speaker:

Linda Davis, JD
Judge for the 41B District Court

Target Audience:

This educational activity is designed for physicians, nurses, social workers, clinical and management staff. Any allied health professional with an interest in improving care related to the topic area is welcome to attend.

Desired Outcome:

Participants will be able to identify how empathy in treatment of drug addictions can help facilitate recovery. This outcome will be assessed by participant self-report of knowledge gained from the activity.

Objectives - Following this educational activity, participants will be better able to:

1. Recognize that addiction is a disease affecting all races, genders and backgrounds
2. Explain why people struggling with addiction deserve empathy
3. Discuss how reducing the stigma of addiction helps to reduce barriers to recovery
